COLD CASE

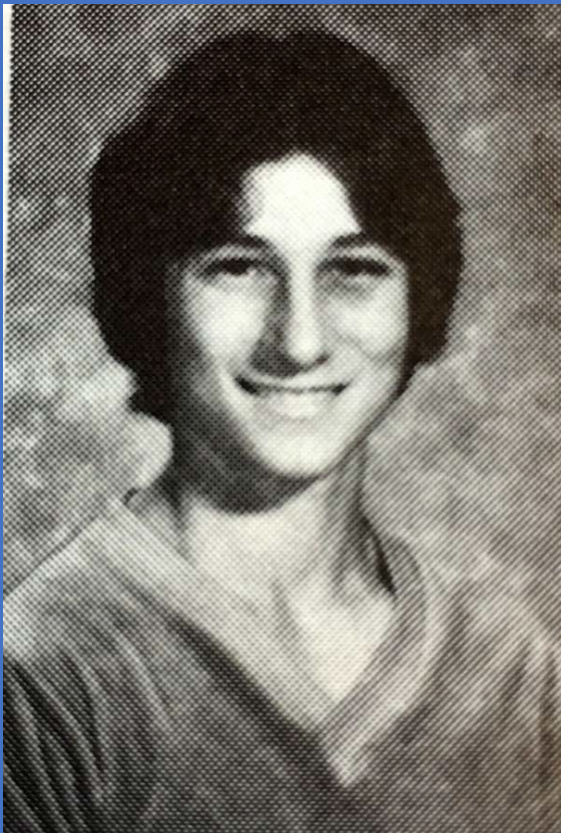

Case Number: 86-10911

Missing Person: Suspicious Circumstances

Washington County SO, July 19, 1986

Gaston Oregon area

Darold Stryffeler Jr., 20 years old.

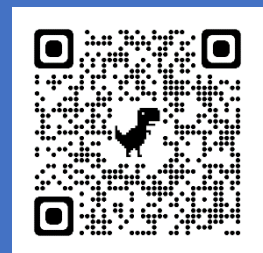

On July 19, 1986, Darold Stryffeler, his brother, and two friends went boating at Hagg Lake outside of Gaston, OR. While at the lake, Darold got into an argument with a group who were on shore, although it was thought this disagreement had been smoothed over. Afterwards, Darold's brother and two friends left the lake and made their way home separately, leaving Darold at the lake. Darold was never seen again.

While closing the lake for the day, marine patrol Deputies located Darold's boat where it had been beached. Darold's vehicle was later found parked in the parking lot. It was determined the vehicle had not been moved since the boat was launched. Investigators consider the circumstances surrounding Darold's disappearance are suspicious.
