COLD CASE

Case Number: 98-1800

Homicide

Washington County SO, January 31, 1998

Tigard Oregon area

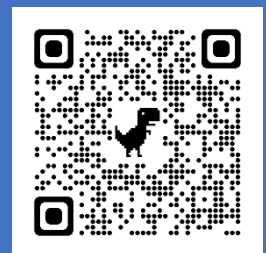

Debra Cockes (Maciariello), 43years old.

Debra Cockes was a recently divorced mother of three children who lived in the Bull Mountain area, just outside the city of Tigard. On the morning of January 31, 1998, Debra dropped off her eldest son at the Tigard High School, it was the last time she was seen alive. Her son discovered Debra and her car missing upon returning home that evening. The next morning, Debra's car was found parked in the driveway of her home, but Debra was still missing. A report was then filed. On February 26, 1998, Debra's body was found floating in the Tualatin River. An autopsy determined Debra's death was a homicide. The case remains unsolved.
